

THE BLACK ANGELS

THE ANGEL FAMILY
CONCERT TROUPE

An illustration depicting a scene at night. A woman in a long, patterned red dress stands in the center, singing with her arms outstretched. She is surrounded by a group of people, including men in hats and women in shawls, who are seated or kneeling on the ground, listening intently. The background features a large, light-colored tent or wagon with the text "THE ANGEL FAMILY CONCERT TROUPE" written on it. The scene is illuminated by a warm, golden light, possibly from a fire or lantern, creating a dramatic and intimate atmosphere.
