

Letters from Maud

A collection of book reviews written by Thomas Edwards for the Betsy-Tacy series and letters written by Maud Hart Lovelace

MRS. DELOS W. LOVELACE

63 WYATT ROAD

GARDEN CITY, NEW YORK

For Thomas C. Edwards whose delightful reminiscences have often helped me to recreate the world in which Betsy and Tacy lived
Maud Hart Lovelace

This collection of letters, written by Maud Hart Lovelace to Thomas C. Edwards, spans the years of 1942 through the late 1950s.

These letters illustrate the friendships that develop between Maud and Tom and their families over the years. Maud came to rely on Tom Edwards for his recollections and memories of early Mankato when she was doing research for the Betsy-Tacy books.

This undated note was written by Maud Hart Lovelace to her friend Thomas C. Edwards.
